

Saint Laszlo

by Laszlo Gere

Saint Laszlo was King Laszlo I of Hungary. He was born in 1040. He was King of Hungary from the years 1077 to 1095.

He is renowned for his defense and propagation of the faith. He allowed religious freedom to the Jews and Mohammedans in his realms.

Saint Laszlo introduced Christianity in Croatia. Pope Urban II chose him to lead the armies of the First Crusade. Saint Laszlo is also known as Saint Ladislaus.

June 27th is the Feast of Saint Laszlo.