

St. Leo the Great

by

Chuck Racey

I have always admired St. Leo the Great because I was born a Leo. His feast day is November 10th which was my mother's birthday.

St. Leo encountered Attila the Hun at the gates of Rome and persuaded him to turn back. He reigned as Pope between 440 and 461.